

MSEL 103 Introduction to Sociology

Re-sit Examination

Section A : True /False questions    Total 15 marks    (3 marks per correct answer)

1. Religion is one of the social institutions.
2. Life expectancy is not an element in demography.
3. Transmitting knowledge is a latent function of education.
4. Authority is a source of power in political systems.
5. Economic factors are one of the reasons people resist change.

Section B : Matching the columns    Total 25 marks    (5 marks per correct answer)

- |              |                           |
|--------------|---------------------------|
| 6. Monarchy  | a) politics               |
| 7. Power     | b) demographic process    |
| 8. Karl Marx | c) a type of government   |
| 9. Migration | d) religious organization |
| 10. The Sect | e) On Communism           |

Section C : Complete the following spaces with word or phrases.

Total 30 marks    (3 marks per correct answer)

11. The 2 most common economic systems in modern society are _____ and _____.
12. _____ and _____ pollution are serious environmental problems.
13. _____ and _____ are manifest functions of education .
14. Human ecology is about _____ and their _____.
15. _____ and _____ are 2 basic types of religion

Section D : Long questions : Choose any TWO questions. (Any exceeding answers, in sequence, will not be marked.) Total 30 marks.    (15 marks per correct answer).

16. What are the functions of religion in society? Do you think religions in Macau are performing these functions?
17. What social change can technology bring about into society? Do you see these changes in Macau society?
18. What are the functions of the family?

THE END